Paul,

I agree with Diamond K's bonding proposal. It is okay to release the grading portion of the bond for the area they reclaimed in 2005. I will not be able to get a formal letter out to you until sometime next week. I am in the middle of wrapping up our oil and gas lease sale. I hope this email will be sufficient for now.

Diamond K Partial Bond Release

Part of the bonding proposal with Diamond K is that we would give them partial release (grading only) for the area they reclaimed in 2005. I need to have your concurrence before doing that. Please let me know if you can agree with this partial release. Thanks.
